

THANK YOU PROGRAM FOR DISTRICT INSTRUCTOR

[OR DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MATRON]

WORTHY MATRON: _____, we wish to thank you most sincerely for your helpful and instructive program which you presented at our last meeting. I'm sure it has been an inspiration to all of us who were present. So, we would like to say again "thanks an awful lot for a very pleasant program."

Sister Conductress: You will present our District Instructor/DDGM to the several points of our emblematic star, the Marshal, and Associate Matron.

ADAH: _____, I bring you "sincere thanks" from the ray of blue because to your convictions you are always true. In your life fidelity has been your guiding light, leading you on a pathway of duty and right.

RUTH: _____, I bring a "thanks so much" from the ray of yellow because through the paths of duty, your life has grown rich and mellow. Like Ruth, the devoted widow, you shrink not from any labor, but do your best and to all are a kindly neighbor.

ESTHER: _____, I bring a "thanks sincerely" from the ray of white, because your life exemplifies joy, purity, and light. Unselfish in service, standing for right to your many friends you are a real delight.

MARTHA: _____, I bring a kindly "thank you" from the ray of green, a symbol of your faith and trust in Him on whom you lean. Walking in the faith and trust in Him on whom you lean, walking in the faith that leads to the Home on high. Showing others by your trust where that path doth lie.

ELECTA: _____, I bring our appreciation for a pleasant evening from the ray of red. Because the path of unselfish love is the one you always tread. You are kind and loving to those in need and are ever ready with a generous deed.

MARSHAL: The winds of God blow softly
 The winds of God blow true
 May they blow today from far away
 Our appreciation of your program to you.

ASSOCIATE MATRON: _____, please accept from _____ Chapter this small gift which you so richly deserve. But that is not why we are presenting it. The true reason is that we love and appreciate you. You have been loyal and faithful in the performance of your duties. You have kept our link in the great chain of fraternal love bright and shiny. And as the time goes on, we know that our pride in you will increase as you continue to carry the banner of our beautiful order with such credit to us all.
